Sport Words: play

Trace this sport word.

The image shows two rows of handwriting practice lines. Each row consists of a solid top line, a dashed middle line, and a solid bottom line. The first row contains three instances of the word 'play': the first is solid black, the second is dashed, and the third is dashed with small arrows on the letters 'p', 'l', and 'y' indicating the direction of the strokes. The second row contains three dashed instances of the word 'play' for tracing. Below the second row is a blank set of handwriting lines for independent practice.
