

Letter G Vocabulary Words

with Definitions and Example Sentences

CVC words

- gab: to talk a lot. "They like to gab about their day."
- gag: to suddenly feel as if you may throw up. "The bad smell made him gag."
- gal: a girl or young woman. "My gal pals and I will play together."
- gap: a space between two things. "He stepped over the gap in the sidewalk."
- gas: a type of fuel. "Cars need gas to run."
- gel: a thick, clear substance. "She put gel in her hair."
- gem: a precious stone. "She found a blue gem in the sand."
- get: to receive something. "I will get a present on my birthday."
- gig: a live performance by a musician. "They went to a gig in the park."
- gum: a chewy candy that you don't swallow.
"He likes to blow bubbles with his gum."
- gut: the part of your body where food is digested.
"His gut hurt after eating too much candy."
- gym: a large indoor space to play sports. "The school had a large gym for the children to play in."

Simple Preschool Words

- game: an activity or sport with rules. "We played a new board game at school today."
- garden: a place where plants grow. "We planted flowers in the garden."
- gate: a hinged barrier used to close an opening in a wall, fence, or hedge. "She opened the gate to the garden."
- gentle: mild in behavior; kind or tender. "He was gentle when petting the dog."
- gift: something given to someone. "He gave me a gift for my birthday."
- girl: a female child. "The girl is riding her bike."

- give: to hand something to someone. "Please give the book to the teacher."
- glad: to feel happy. "She was glad to see her friend."
- go: to move or travel to a place. "Let's go to the playground."
- glow: to give off light. "The stars glow in the dark sky."

Kindergarten Words

- galaxy: a large system of stars, gas, and dust in space. "We looked at pictures of the galaxy in our science book."
- gave: to present voluntarily without expecting anything in return. "She gave her friend a hug."
- gazebo: a small, open building in a garden or park, usually used for relaxation or entertainment. "The family enjoyed lunch under the gazebo at the park."
- glass: a hard, clear material used to make windows, jars, and bottles. "She filled the glass with water."
- gloves: coverings that keep the hands warm or protected. "He wore gloves to keep his hands warm."
- goal: an aim or desired result. "His goal is to learn how to read."
- goat: a type of animal. "The goat climbed up the hill."
- gold: a yellow precious metal. "She wore a necklace made of gold."
- gone: no longer present. "The cookies are gone because we ate them all."
- good: to be desired or approved of. "He did a good job on his artwork."
- gown: a long elegant dress worn on formal occasions. "She wore a beautiful gown to the dance."
- grass: the green plant that covers the ground in many places. "The grass is wet with dew in the morning."
- green: the color between blue and yellow in the spectrum. "The grass is very green in the spring."
- group: a number of individuals assembled together. "The group of children played at the park."

Elementary Words

- gallery: a place to view art. "We visited an art gallery downtown."
- garbage: waste or trash. "Please take out the garbage."
- gargle: to clean your throat with liquid. "He will gargle with salt water for his sore throat."
- garment: an item of clothing. "She bought a new garment for the party."
- gaze: to look steadily at something, often in admiration. "She would gaze at the stars every night."
- general: involving or affecting all or most people, places, or things. "The general opinion is that it was a great movie."
- gesture: a movement to express a thought or feeling. "He made a gesture of thanks."
- giant: very large or greater than usual in size or force. "The giant tree towered over the houses."
- glacier: a large mass of ice. "The glacier moved very slowly down the valley."
- glance: a quick look. "She caught a glance of the dolphin jumping."
- glasses: frames bearing lenses worn in front of the eyes, normally for vision correction. "He needs to wear glasses to see the chalkboard."
- globe: a spherical model of the Earth. "We found our country on the globe."
- glue: a sticky substance used for joining things together. "She used glue to stick the paper pieces together."
- golf: a game played on a large open course with clubs and a small ball. "She wants to learn to play golf."

Food Words

- granola: a crunchy cereal made with oats. "She had granola with yogurt for breakfast."
- grape: a small, sweet fruit that grows in clusters. "He picked a bunch of grapes from the vine."
- grapefruit: a large, round citrus fruit with a somewhat bitter taste. "Grapefruit is a good source of vitamin C."
- gravy: a sauce made from cooked meat juices. "She poured gravy over her mashed potatoes."

- green bean: a type of long, green vegetable that is eaten cooked. "Green beans are fresh in the summer."
- grits: a dish of coarsely ground corn kernels. "Grits are a popular breakfast in the southern U.S."
- guacamole: a dip made from mashed avocado. "They served guacamole with chips."
- gumbo: a stew or soup that originated in Louisiana with meat or shellfish and vegetables. "They enjoyed a spicy bowl of gumbo."
- gyro: a Greek dish of roasted meat that's usually served in pita bread. "He ordered a gyro for lunch."

Animal Words

- gazelle: a small, fast antelope found in Africa and Asia. "The gazelle leaped across the savannah."
- gecko: a small lizard that has suction pads on its feet. "A gecko can climb smooth surfaces."
- gerbil: a small, furry rodent often kept as a pet. "She has a pet gerbil named Gigi."
- giraffe: the tallest living animal, with a very long neck. "The giraffe reached high to eat leaves from the tree."
- gnat: a small flying insect. "Gnats were swarming by the lake at dusk."
- gnu: another name for a wildebeest, an antelope in eastern Africa. "The gnu joined the migration across the plains."
- goldfish: a small, golden-orange fish often kept in ponds and aquariums. "He won a goldfish at the fair."
- gorilla: a large, powerful ape that lives in African forests. "The gorilla at the zoo ate a banana."
- grasshopper: an insect that has long legs for jumping. "The grasshopper leaps from leaf to leaf."
- grouse: a type of bird found in wooded areas. "The grouse blended into the forest floor with its brown feathers."

Object Words

- gadget: a small mechanical or electronic device or tool. "He loves buying the latest tech gadgets."
- gallon: a unit of liquid measure equal to four quarts. "The car takes 15 gallons of gas."
- gavel: a small hammer used by a judge or an auctioneer. "The judge struck the gavel to call the court to order."
- gear: a rotating machine part having cut teeth. "She shifted the car into first gear."
- glider: a light aircraft that is designed to fly without an engine. "They watched the glider soar silently."
- goggles: protective glasses that fit closely to the face. "She wore goggles to protect her eyes while swimming."
- guitar: a musical instrument with six strings played by strumming or plucking. "He learned to play songs on the guitar."

Places Words

- garage: a building for housing cars, trucks, or motorcycles. "They converted the garage into a workshop."
- gazebo: a small, open building in a garden or park, used for entertainment. "They had lunch in the park's gazebo."
- glen: a narrow valley. "The stream wound through the shady glen."
- grotto: a small picturesque cave, especially an artificial one in a park or garden. "The grotto was lit up with fairy lights for the evening event."
- gymnasium: a room or building equipped for gymnastics, games, and other physical exercise. "After school, they headed to the gymnasium for basketball practice."

Nature and Environment Words

- geyser: a hot spring that can send a tall column of water and steam into the air. "The geyser erupted, thrilling the onlookers."
- glade: an open space in a forest. "Deer were often spotted in the forest glade."

- grassland: a large open area of country covered with grass, especially one used for grazing. "They drove through miles of vast grassland."
- grove: a small wood, orchard, or group of trees. "The orange grove was ripe with fruit ready for harvest."
- gulf: a large area of sea or ocean partly enclosed by land. "The gulf was known for its deep blue waters."
- gully: a water-worn ravine. "Rainwater rushed down the gully during the storm."
- gust: a brief, strong rush of wind. "A sudden gust of wind blew her hat off."

Emotions and Trait Words

- gallant: brave; heroic. "The gallant firefighter saved the family from the burning house."
- genial: friendly and cheerful. "The host was genial, making everyone feel welcome."
- giddy: feeling excited to the point of distraction. "The thought of flying for the first time made her giddy."
- glum: looking or feeling sad. "He was glum after hearing the disappointing news."
- gracious: courteous, kind, and pleasant. "His gracious manner made him a wonderful host."
- grateful: feeling or showing an appreciation for something. "She was grateful for the help her friends provided."
- greedy: having a strong desire for more than one needs. "The greedy king wanted more and more gold."
- guilty: feeling responsible for a wrongdoing. "He felt guilty for arriving late and missing the beginning of the play."
- gutsy: having a great deal of courage. "The gutsy performer walked across the tightrope without a net."

Action Words

- gallop: to run fast. "The horse loved to gallop across the meadow."
- gape: to stare with one's mouth open in amazement. "They gaped at the fireworks lighting up the sky."
- garnish: to add decorations to something, especially food. "She garnished the meal with parsley before serving."
- gather: to come together. "They gather at the park every Sunday for a picnic."
- glide: to move smoothly along with little effort or resistance. "The ice skater can glide gracefully across the ice."
- glitter: to shine with a bright, reflected light. "The sequined dress will glitter under the party lights."
- gobble: to eat something hastily. "He gobbled up his lunch because he was late for the meeting."
- gossip: to talk about other people's private lives, which might not be true or respectful. "They would often gossip about celebrities."
- graduate: to complete an academic degree or course of training. "She will graduate from college next spring."
- grasp: to hold firmly. "He grasped the rope tightly to pull himself up."
- grumble: to complain about something. "He would often grumble about the cold weather."
- guarantee: to promise with certainty. "The salesperson can guarantee satisfaction with the product."
- guide: to lead or show the way to someone. "She volunteered to guide the tourists around the museum."
- gulp: to swallow food or drink quickly or in large mouthfuls. "He gulped down his coffee to leave in time."
- gush: to flow out in a rapid stream, often suddenly. "Water gushed from the broken pipe."