

Fantasy & Imagination

Would you rather have a pet dragon or a unicorn?	Would you rather be able to fly or live underwater?	Would you rather have rainbow-colored hair or glow-in-the-dark skin?
Would you rather slide down a rainbow or jump on clouds?	Would you rather be stuck in a video game or a cartoon?	Would you rather spend the day as a robot or an alien?
Would you rather be a wizard or a pirate?	Would you rather live in a castle or an epic treehouse?	Would you rather be a character in your favorite movie or your favorite book?
Would you rather be covered in fur or feathers?	Would you rather have glow-in-the-dark teeth or rainbow eyelashes?	Would you rather live in a world with no cell phones or no dessert?
Would you rather have to speak in rhymes or riddles for the rest of your life?	Would you rather ride a flying bicycle or drive a car that can go underwater?	Would you rather have a backpack that creates anything you need or shoes that let you teleport?
