Illustrate a Poem: "Maggie's Colorful Rainy Days"

Circle the words that start with the prefixes un, re, or dis. Also circle the words that end in the suffixes y, ly, or ful.
Write the words you circled on the lines below the poem. Draw and color a picture to go with the poem.

Maggie's Colorful Rainy Days

When Maggie paints on rainy days,
Her colors change in many ways.

She'll quickly make some flowers red,
Then replace red with pink instead.

If she's unhappy with the pink,
She'll take a helpful break and think.

The pink might disappear from view—
She's always trying something new!
