Fun Poems: Bug on My Rug

Bug on My Rug

There's a bug on my rug,
Crawling to somewhere.
There's a bug on my rug,
Now it's on the chair!
There's a bug on my chair,
Crawling to somewhere.
There's a bug on my chair,
Now it's on that stair!
There's a bug on the stair,
Crawling to somewhere,
To my room? Oh no, bug!
Not my room, chair or that stair!
Off my rug,
Crawl outside to somewhere!

Draw and color a picture to go with the poem.

Illustrate a Poem: "Maggie's Colorful Rainy Days"

Circle the words that start with the prefixes un, re, or dis. Also circle the words that end in the suffixes y, ly, or ful. Write the words you circled on the lines below the poem. Draw and color a picture to go with the poem.

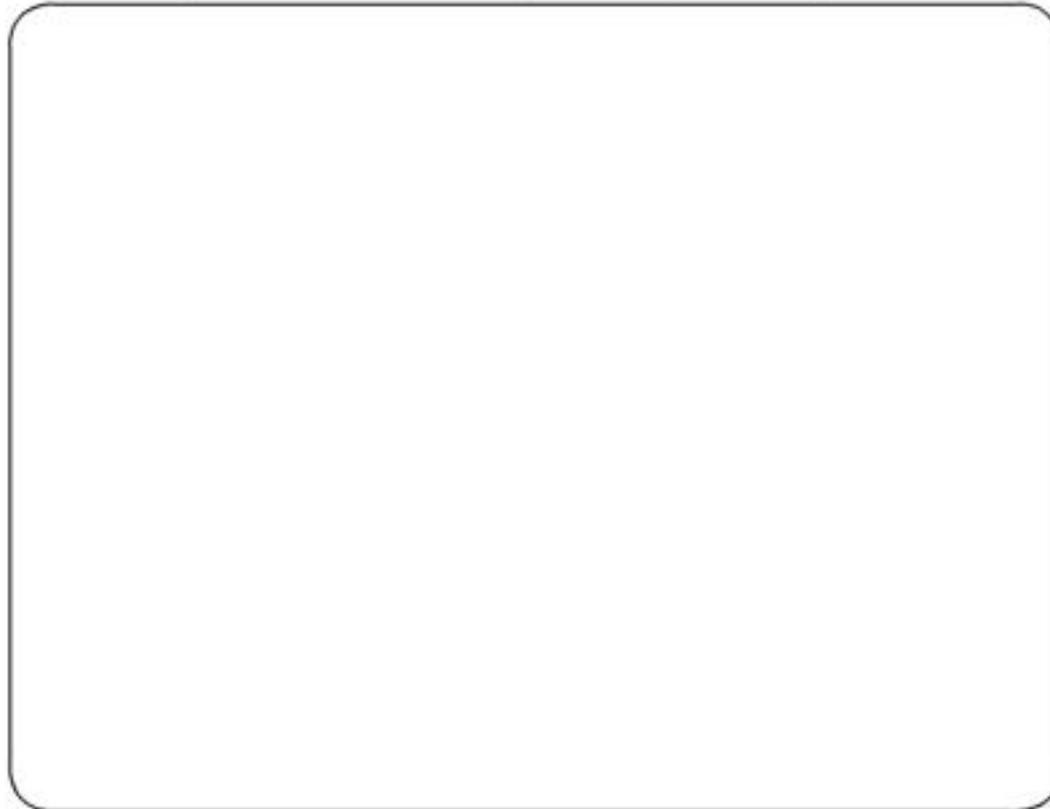

Maggie's Colorful Rainy Days

When Maggie paints on rainy days,
Her colors change in many ways.

She'll quickly make some flowers red,
Then replace red with pink instead.

If she's unhappy with the pink,
She'll take a helpful break and think.

The pink might disappear from view—
She's always trying something new!

Draw and color a picture to go with the poem.

It's time to say goodbye to winter
And say hello to spring!
We look forward to the beauty
That the season spring will bring!

New baby birds tweet in their nests
Waiting to be fed
While flowers, trees, and bushes bloom
In pink, white, yellow, and red!

Teaching Tip: Read the poem aloud with the child. As you read the poem together, encourage him or her to visualize what the poet is describing.
